

Clothes for Lifeline

A note to people who are travelling to Taree: Please check the clothing bin in our hall and deliver the contents to the Lifeline store in Taree. Roger & Sue often do it, but it would share the load if the job

Farewell Keith this Sunday

Keith Robinson, the trainee minister who has been with us for the last two months, will fulfil his obligations with us this weekend before he becomes a fully qualified Minister of the Word and accepts a placement, most likely in a regional country area. We have enjoyed and been enlightened by Keith's presence and we wish him and his wife God's richest blessings on his future within the church. We hope to meet up again Keith.

Rev Tony Winter worked for the Federal Methodist Inland Mission from 1971 to 1973, serving in the Pilbara Patrol, stationed in Port Hedland, Western Australia. For Tony, those times are firmly etched in his memory, and he holds the experiences and the people he served close to his heart.
